Ocean Technology in the UK: Information and Opportunity

Presented by the Trade Commissioner Service with the Society of Maritime Industries

Monday 13th February 2012

11:00 EST

16:00 London; 12:30 St. John's; 12:00 Halifax; 11:00 Toronto / Québec; 09:00 Edmonton;
08:00 Vancouver

Canadian organisations with an interest in ocean technology are invited to a short web seminar focussed on the UK market. The seminar (in English), hosted by the Trade Commissioner Service at Canada's High Commission to the UK, will introduce new information resources available to Canadian companies.

We will then be delighted to welcome John Murray, Chief Executive of the UK's Society for Maritime Industries, who will present a brief overview of UK marine science and technology opportunity highlights, and will be available to take questions.
